

Delaware County Community College
Focus On Your Future

Free Career Programs for all Students

Fall 2009

Focus on Your Future is a series of academic and career related workshops available free to all students at Delaware County Community College.

The Career and Counseling Center, Room 1325, sponsors the Workshop Series.

"The Basics: Things Every College Student Can Do to Improve Success"

Aside from all the information written in your syllabi, there are a lot of small things students can do to impress professors, get better organized and become more successful. This workshop will go over basic, practical things every student can do to improve.

Presenter: Michele Geary Boyle, Counselor

Tuesday, September 22

Q-Time - 11:05 am-12:00 pm

Room 1163

"What Can I Do With a Major in Psychology?"

This workshop is designed for students who enjoy psychology classes and are considering pursuing a career in the field of psychology. This workshop will cover the various career opportunities available to students with a degree in psychology. Information will also be given about where to look to further research this field.

Presenter: Jennifer Kalligonis, Counselor

Thursday, September 24

Q-time - 11:05 am-12:00 pm

Room 1163

"Community College: Not the 13th Grade"

The myth exists that community colleges somehow offer a lesser experience than their four-year counterparts. This workshop will examine and dispel the myths that contribute to the title "The 13th Grade".

Presenter: Michele Geary Boyle, Counselor

Wednesday, October 14

Time: 1:25-2:20 pm

Room 1163

"Career and Counseling Center's Fall Semester Evening Coffees"

All evening students, faculty and staff are invited to our traditional Fall Event in Room 1325. Please join us for hospitality, refreshments and an introduction to our resources. Come learn about the extensive career services and materials we have to offer.

Tuesday & Wednesday, October 27 and 28

Time: 5:00-9:00 pm

Room 1325

“Undecided Students: How to Make Career and Major Decisions”

Upon reaching college, students are expected to know what major or career to choose. Yet, many students are never taught how to choose one. This one session workshop will discuss practical steps students should follow to discover which major best suits them.

Presenter: TBA

Thursday, October 29

Q-time – 11:05am-12:00 pm

Room 1163

“Transferring to Temple University”

Interested in transferring to Temple University? DCCC offers a guaranteed admissions program with Temple University called Dual Admissions. This one session workshop will cover what classes to take for transfer and how to sign up for the Dual Admissions program.

Presenter: Michele Keevill, Coordinator of DCCC’s Dual Admissions Program

Thursday, November 12

Q-time - 11:05 am–12:00 pm

Room 1163

“Education Majors Information Session”

All education majors and students interested in education should attend this one session workshop. The necessary coursework for graduation from DCCC will be discussed in addition to transfer requirements. GPA changes and Praxis tests will be discussed.

Presenters: Michele Geary Boyle, Counselor

Wednesday, November 18

Time – 1:25-2:20

Room 1163

“Transferring to West Chester”

Interested in transferring to West Chester University? DCCC offers a guaranteed admissions program with West Chester University called the Letter of Intent. This one session workshop will cover what classes to take for transfer and how to sign up for the Letter of Intent program. Representatives from West Chester’s Admissions Department will be available to answer questions.

Presenter: Michael Sidoti, DCCC Counselor

Tuesday, December 1

Q-time – 11:05am–12:00 pm

Room 1163

“How to Choose a Transfer School”

How does the transfer process work? What does a four-year college look for in a community college student? What should you look for in a four-year school? How do transfer agreements work? This one session workshop will answer all of the basic questions students have regarding the transfer process and selecting the right school.

Presenter: Nora Manz, Transfer Specialist

Tuesday, December 8

Q-time – 11:05a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Room 1163

Many professors offer extra credit for attending campus workshops – ask your professors if they would be willing to do so! Attendance is taken at every workshop and certificates are distributed at the end of every session.