College Policy

SUBJECT: Student Tuition and Fee Refund for Withdrawals

NUMBER: 11.4

ORIGINAL DATE OF ISSUE: 8/19/70

REVISED: 6/17/15

To be eligible for any refund, the student must officially withdraw from the course or courses. A refund for withdrawal will not be issued that is greater than 100% of tuition and refundable fees minus any non-refundable fees and required deposits. In accordance with federal student aid regulations, any student who receives federal financial aid and withdraws before completing 60% of the term will have all or a portion of that aid returned to the federal fund before any refund is issued.

Refund of eligible payments will be made according to the following schedule:

- Withdrawal before the start of classes (0% of class time*) 100%
- Withdrawal before end of one week of classes (7% of class time*) 80%
- Withdrawal before end of two weeks of classes (15% of class time*) 60%
- Withdrawal before end of three weeks of classes (20% of class time*) 40%

*Refund for summer sessions, special sessions, and all irregularly scheduled sessions and courses is determined by the percentage of class time elapsed at the time of withdrawal.

Students who must officially withdraw from the College after the start of classes because of a call to active duty in the armed services (appropriately documented) or a disabling injury or serious illness (appropriately documented) will receive a credit in keeping with the Student Withdrawal Policy. The policy, as noted above, regarding the return of federal student aid will apply to both of the aforementioned withdrawals.
