Dear Friends of the Foundation,

As Chair of the Foundation Board of Directors for the past two years, I have been honored to represent my fellow Board Members in several capacities. The Board of Directors comprises 30 prominent business and community leaders who share a commitment to building a strong community through volunteerism and education. We recognize that the mission of the College is a good fit for our time and talents. With many academic offerings in fields that support our local industries, Delaware County Community College, now more than ever, is the right choice for our community and its residents.

The Foundation’s role is specific in its focus on providing financial support for students, faculty, programs and facilities. Board Members serve on various committees throughout the year, assisting the Foundation in managing its enterprise and advancing its noble purpose. Board Members are also advocates for the College within the community. Their influence frequently results in the development of mutually-beneficial partnerships.

We are very proud of the strong scholarship support that donors provide for our students year after year. Their generosity promotes retention while rewarding and encouraging the academic achievements of our students. In recent years, we have focused on renovating the Marple Campus into a 21st century educational environment necessitated by major technological and pedagogical advances. At the same time, the College has expanded into local communities to offer access to its unique brand of education. We wholeheartedly support this effort and are proud of our association with the College.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, thank you to the many donors who continue to invest in the College and to support its mission.

Sincerely yours,

Donald B. Soslow

2013 ANNUAL FOUNDATION DINNER

The Foundation’s annual dinner honors the more than 100 scholarship donors and 200 student recipients. Donors are recognized for their generosity and students for their accomplishments.

The keynote address was delivered by alumna, Denise Romanelli, who also received the Wong Moss Outstanding Alumni Award from John Moss. Aside from honoring alumni who are accomplished in their careers, the award focuses on community service. Romanelli’s influence at Sun East Federal Credit Union helped to transform the culture at the company to one of service and earned her the 2004 Year Pinnacle Award. Her message to the audience at the dinner offered encouragement and inspiration, particularly to students.
Dr. Louis Beccaria (right), President and CEO of Phoenixville Community Health Foundation, congratulates Michael Holmes, Margaret Gmuca (left) and Ashley Williams on receiving scholarships from the Phoenixville Community Health Foundation. The awards are restricted to health-related majors and public safety majors.

Lesley Eisenman (left), founder of Trash Talkin’ Ladies, LLC, and husband Steve Sebastian congratulate Jahnia Wright on receiving the Eisenman-Sebastian Scholarship for students interested in the environment.

Leslie Eisenman (left), founder of Trash Talkin’ Ladies, LLC, and husband Steve Sebastian congratulate Jahnia Wright on receiving the Eisenman-Sebastian Scholarship for students interested in the environment.

Dr. John Agar, Jr. and wife Beatrice present the John Russell Agar Nursing Scholarship to Lisa Osborne (center) of Havertown at the Delaware County Community College Educational Foundation Annual Dinner in October. Agar is Dean of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics at the College. The scholarship was named as a tribute to his father.

Don Soslow (right), Chair, Foundation Board of Directors, congratulates the Compass Group/Canteen Dining Scholarship winners, Stephen Miller of Norwood and Rookha Mian of Drexel Hill.

Dave Banet, President of David M. Banet & Associates, Inc. and Foundation Board Member, congratulates Bibi Kautar of Media, on winning the Louis W. Scott III Memorial Scholarship. Banet is Title Sponsor of the Lou Scott Golf Classic, which raises money each year for the scholarship.

Jay Stearly, College nursing alumnus and donor to the Bishop Dillon Stearly Scholarship, presents a scholarship to Marnie LaRue. The scholarship is supported by Stearly’s classmates, Linda Bishop and Pat Dillon, for nursing students at the College’s Chester County Hospital program.
Awards

The Foundation has numerous awards for students, faculty, staff and alumni that recognize extraordinary accomplishments in the classrooms or broader community. Awards are presented throughout the year or at special events created for the awards.

Create a Legacy

WILLS AND TRUSTS
A will or living trust that includes Delaware County Community College Educational Foundation as a charitable beneficiary is no different than any other will, except that it includes bequest language to benefit the College. Your bequest provision can take many forms such as naming Delaware County Community College for a specific dollar amount, a set percentage of the total value of your estate, or the remainder of your estate after you have provided for family.

RETIREMENT PLAN
For many individuals, qualified retirement plans such as Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs), 401(k)s, 403(b)s, and Keoghs may represent a disproportionate percentage of their net worth. By naming “Delaware County Community College” on the change of beneficiary form for your retirement plan, you can designate the College to receive a portion of the funds left in the account at your passing. Not only is this simpler than drafting a codicil to your will, it also has tax advantages. If your qualified plan assets pass to someone other than your spouse at your death, they may be subject to both income and estate taxes.

INSURANCE POLICY
In some cases, if you own a fully-paid, existing life insurance policy that you no longer need, you may want to consider donating the policy to Delaware County Community College. You benefit from an income tax charitable deduction for approximately the cash surrender value of the policy. We generally liquidate donated policies immediately and use the proceeds as you designate.

The transformation of the Marple Campus to a 21st century educational environment, which began in 2009 and 2010 with the opening of the STEM Complex, continues with major construction still underway. Funding for the Learning Commons and Auditorium has continued into 2012-13, and we take this opportunity to thank those who contributed to these projects.

Many donors to Phase II Gateway to Opportunity “purchased” seats in the new auditorium or Learning Commons. The campaign provided for nameplates on auditorium seating or computer workstations. Seats are still available for gifts ranging from $250 to $1,500. For information, contact the Foundation Office at 610-359-5131.
Presenting the Beneficial Foundation $15,000 grant to Dr. Jerry Parker, College President, for the Learning Commons are Carl Needles (left) Market Director, and Robert Juliano, Vice President, Community Development, both of Beneficial Bank. Also accepting the gift is Kathleen Breslin, Executive Director of the Educational Foundation.

In 2014-15 and beyond, funding will be sought for the Student Center or Enrollment Services Center. As always, the focus is on the student experience with the ultimate goal of student success.

Dear Donors,

Throughout the past year, we have thanked you for your contributions to the Foundation. The annual report presents another opportunity to express our gratitude and to document your generosity. Contributions in 2013-2014 totaled $1,171,503, representing support for capital and annual programs, and an increase of $138,272 over last year.

Phase II of the Gateway to Opportunity Capital Campaign for development of the Learning Commons and Auditorium is complete, with construction on Phase III already underway. Once completed, these renovations will result in a transformation of the student experience at the Marple Campus.

As in the past, the Foundation’s Annual Dinner presents an opportunity to recognize the contributions of time and talent of the Foundation Board of Directors who host the event. The event honors both scholarship donors and students whose efforts have merited the awards. With 145 scholarship and award programs, the Foundation continues to welcome new donors each year who join a list of alumni, faculty, friends, board members, corporations, foundations and other organizations whose longstanding support has assisted worthy students for many years.

One of our largest programs is the Lou W. Scott III Memorial Scholarship, which is bolstered every year by the annual Lou Scott Golf Classic. As noted in this report, this event has continued to attract 100 or more golfers each year for the past 14 years, raising $207,612 and assisting 67 students. It is just one example of the commitment of our constituents to the well-being of our students and our shared community.

Your continuing support of the Foundation’s mission plays an essential role in the College’s student retention effort. It is also a vote of confidence in the work of faculty and administration. Thank you again.

Sincerely,

Kathleen A. Breslin
