Area Programs in Radiologic Technology

Thomas Jefferson University
Several bachelor’s degree program of study in the Radiologic Sciences are offered, including: Radiography, Nuclear Medicine, Cardiac Sonography, Vascular Sonography, Radiation Therapy, Medical Dosimetry, Computed Tomography, Magnetic Resonance Imaging, Invasive Cardiovascular Technology. Full-time, 24 months. Please refer to the DCCC/Thomas Jefferson University advising manual www.jefferson.edu
http://www.jefferson.edu/university/jmc/departments/radiology.html

Gwynedd-Mercy University
Bachelor of Science in Radiologic Technology (2+2 program)
Radiologic Technology Completion Program—for students who are already ARRT-certified and registered radiologic technologists.
Bachelor of Science in Radiologic Sciences from Thomas Jefferson University through partnership agreement (2+2)
http://www.g mercyu.edu/
http://www.g mercyu.edu/academics/undergraduate-programs/nursing/radtech-bachelors

Harcum College
Associate of Science in Radiologic Technology (76 credits can be completed in 6 semesters)
www.harcum.edu

Holy Family University
Associate of Science in Radiologic Science. Full time, 20-month, allied health curriculum designed to prepare the student for practice in the health specialty of radiography and future study in the Bachelor of Science in Radiologic Science (BSRS) Degree Program.
Must attend an information session
www.holyfamily.edu
http://www.holyfamily.edu/choosing-holy-family-u/academics/schools-of-study/philadelphia-school-of-nursing

Immaculata University
Bachelor of Science Allied Health with a specialization. Students complete three years of health and liberal arts courses at Immaculata and transition to either Thomas Jefferson University, Pennsylvania College of Health Sciences, The Johns Hopkins Hospital Radiography Program, or Bucks County Community College to complete the degree.
http://immaculata.edu/academics/departments/healthsciencesandservices/radiology

Widener-Crozer Chester Medical Center
Bachelor of Science in Allied Health for Diagnostic Medical Sonography (Ultrasound) 20-month, full-time program Associate of Science in Allied Health for Radiologic Technology, 24-months, full-time program http://www.crozerkeystone.org/healthcare-professionals/allied-health/
Area Programs in Radiologic Technology

The University of Pennsylvania
Full time, two-year Radiologic Technology Educational Program sponsored by the University of Pennsylvania Medical Center.
http://www.uphs.upenn.edu/radiology
http://www.uphs.upenn.edu/radiology/education/rte/

Pennsylvania College of Health Sciences Associate's degree in Radiography (69 credit program)
http://www.pacollege.edu/academics/programs/radiography/

Pennsylvania College of Technology
Bachelor of Science in Applied Health Studies, Completion with Radiography Concentration. Intended for individuals who are currently or soon to be certified, licensed, or registered in a health care profession, or for students interested in the occupational therapy assistant, emergency medical services, radiography, exercise science, or surgical technology major who also wish to earn the bachelor's degree.
Associate of Applied Science in Radiography prepares the student to become a registered medical radiographer.
https://www.pct.edu/academics/hs/imaging/

Montgomery County Community College Associate's degree in Radiography (70 credit program completed in 2 years)
http://www.mc3.edu/academics/areas-of-study/health-sciences/
radiography/radiography-aas

Community College of Philadelphia Associate's degree in Diagnostic Medical Imaging (76 credit program)
www.ccp.edu
http://ccp.edu/node/388

 Shared Programs with Philadelphia, Bucks and Montgomery County Community Colleges allow students living in a sponsoring school district to pay sponsoring rates at these other community colleges for certain programs not offered in student’s home college. Students must first be authorized to participate in this program by the director of admissions.