HIS: History, A.A.: 201309 to Present

For Students Enrolled in:
HIS: History, A.A
201309 to Present

Program Description: The History Program is designed primarily but not limited to those students who wish to pursue a Baccalaureate degree in history. The program of study will provide students with the foundational history courses as well as those courses that meet their general education requirements. Upon successful completion of an Associate of Arts Degree in History, they will be able to transfer into parallel programs.

Program Outcomes:
Upon successful completion of this curriculum, students should be able to:

- Students will be able to explain multiple aspects of the history of the United States from precolonial times to the present, such as cultural, social, political, economic, diplomatic, and military variables, and recognize the local and regional factors associated with these developments
- Students will be able to explain multiple aspects of the history of the world from the dawn of civilization to the present, such as cultural, social, political, economic, diplomatic, and military variables, and recognize the local, regional, and national factors associated with these developments
- Students will be able to explain the racial, ethnic, socio-economic, sexual, and religious diversity involved in the historical development of the United States and the world and recognize its relevance to events in their own place and time
- Students will be able to recognize the difference between historical evidence and interpretation and utilize critical and analytical thinking to examine the causes and ramifications of historical events, topics, and themes
- Students will be able to develop their own perspectives on history and provide evidence from both primary and secondary sources to support their viewpoints in written and oral form
